Dear Eduardo,

I wanted to personally congratulate you on receiving the first LEED Silver certification in the City of Miami. What a tremendous accomplishment! This recognition reinforces our belief that whatever success we enjoy as a company is due primarily to the great attitude and continued commitment of our people.

For these reasons, I am much honored to recognize you with this WOW! Award. This award, given at my personal discretion, is shared with only select individuals and/or hotels that truly exceed our expectations. Please accept this small token for you and your team for delivering a “Wow” attitude every single day to our guests and exceeding their expectations.

On behalf of Hilton Worldwide and the Hampton Brand, I would again like to thank you and your team for your commitment to unforgettable service!

Sincerely,

Phil Cordell
